

For more information:
Please contact Ivan Wiener
Executive Producer
505.350.8572

For Immediate Release

Albuquerque Film & Media Experience Lands Four World Premieres

Cool and impactful movies, people and events make Albuquerque the place to be in June

Albuquerque, N.M., April 12, 2013 – The Albuquerque Film & Media Experience \(AFME\) at Nob Hill has announced four world premieres including Justice Denied, Circle the Wagon, Chasing Moonflowers and Moses on the Mesa to complete an exciting lineup of movies June 3-9, 2013. AFME's robust festival includes 80 movies, panels and "Intimate Conversations", fundraisers and unique parties and events. "There has already been international media attention and coverage about AFME with the participation of Robert Redford, Sibylle Szaggars-Redford, director Joshua Michael Stern, United Kingdom sleep artist Lee Hadwin, Americans for the Arts CEO Robert Lynch, and famed composers Morten Lauridsen and David Thor Jonsson", said Ivan Wiener, Executive Producer. "The City of Albuquerque and the Albuquerque Convention & Visitor's Bureau are as thrilled as we are about the program, the interest from the Hollywood community both here and abroad and the number of statewide, national and international travelers already confirmed to attend."

Along with the four premieres, actors Elizabeth Pena, Jeremiah Bitsui and Raoul Trujillo will be in attendance for the screening of the highly anticipated Lionsgate feature, "Blaze You Out". Actor/director Federico Castelluccio from The Sopranos will be screening "Keep Your Enemies Closer, Checkmate." Emily Katz, head makeup and special effects supervisor for Charlie Sheen's Anger Management and Lost will be doing a featured "Intimate Conversation" at Great Face and Body. New Mexico resident and producer Tony Mark and actors Wes Studi and Steven Michael Quezada will be joining the festival as well. AFME and SAG-AFTRA are proud to present The Lone Ranger panel with the actors who played the Rangers in Disney's July 3rd release starring Johnny Depp and Armie Hammer – Chad Brummett, Lou Temple (The Walking Dead), Damon Carney, Robert Baker and Kevin Wiggins.

The Albuquerque Film & Media Experience is a socially conscious and impactful event that represents creative achievement in film, music, arts and entertainment. AFME programming includes domestic and international movies, new media, food and art, intimate conversations, panels and time with industry leaders in attendance.

For additional information about the Albuquerque Film & Media Experience at Nob Hill or to become a sponsor, please visit www.abqfilmexperience.com.

##